

Webinar Steering Committee:

Roelof van Ewijk

I am a research and clinical fellow at the Princess Máxima Center for Paediatric Oncology in Utrecht, the Netherlands. My research focusses on pediatric sarcoma, aiming to contribute to the improvement of care and survival in pediatric sarcoma patients. In line with my educational ambition, I am involved as a trainer in the Advanced Pediatric Life Support society, addressing general and oncology-specific emergencies.